How to Publish/archive a student paper, essay or degree project in DiVA

1. Log in: Log in to BTH DiVA with your BTH account and password:
Contact IT Helpdesk ithelpdesk@bth.se if you need help with account information.
2. Select publication type: Student thesis is preselected. Click on continue to proceed.

Personal identity number may not be published in DiVA according to Data Protection Regulation, GDPR!

Help texts explaining each field are shown if you hold your cursor over the question mark.

The screenshot displays the DiVA registration interface. A sidebar on the left contains the text 'My drafts'. The main area features a progress bar with four steps: 'Select publication type -->', 'Enter information -->', 'Upload files -->', and 'Review / Publish -->'. Below the progress bar are navigation buttons: 'Back', 'Cancel', and 'Continue'. The current step is 'Select publication type ?'. A dropdown menu is open, showing 'Student thesis' as the selected option. Below the dropdown, a note reads: 'You can also go to your drafts. Select My drafts.' At the bottom of the main area are another set of navigation buttons: 'Back', 'Cancel', and 'Continue'. A blue arrow points from the text box above to the question mark in the 'Select publication type ?' heading.

Remember: You can save an incomplete registration as a draft by clicking on Cancel/Save draft and selecting Save as draft. You can find it later under My drafts. Fields marked with red are mandatory fields. Certain programmes or courses may require other Certain courses may require other fields, ask you department if you are unsure.

A large part of research about libraries and library buildings in Sweden has been focused on how the building looks not how it functions with the library. The aim with this master's thesis is to study how a library building is functioning and how its users are experiencing it. This is studied in three libraries, Kungliga tekniska högskolans bibliotek, Sambiblioteket in Härnösand and Vitterhetsakademiens bibliotek. With the questions of how they were planned, what did the libraries want from the new building and which of these demands were realized. The theory and method will be inspired from Daniel Koch and Inger Bergström. I have visited 13. Upload your file: Upload your paper in PDF-format (A4). This is where you can manage the public visibility of your file in DiVA.

Make freely available now is preselected.

No changes are necessary if your paper doesn't need any special arrangements.

Make freely available now includes archiving of the file in DiVA.

If you would like to make your file visible on a specific date, select the option Make freely available later and choose the appropriate date.

If you want only the information about the work (not the full text) to be visible in DiVA, select Only for archiving.

Upload your paper by click on choose file and select your paper. The paper must be in PDF-format (A4)

The screenshot shows the 'Upload file' form in DiVA. It includes a 'Title' field, a 'Secrecy' checkbox with a 'Registration number' field, and three radio button options for availability: 'Make freely available now (open access)' (selected), 'Make freely available later', and 'Only for archiving'. There are date input fields for both the 'later' and 'hidden in the future' options. The 'Type' section has dropdown menus for 'fulltext' and 'pdf (application/pdf)'. Below that is an optional name field and checkboxes for 'Print file' and 'Digitized'. A progress bar shows '0%' with buttons for 'Välj fil' and 'Ingen fil har valts'. At the bottom, there is a section for uploading from a URL (max 16 GB) with a 'Confirm the URL' button. Navigation buttons 'Back', 'Cancel / Save draft', and 'Continue' are at the very bottom.

14. Once your file is uploaded - read the conditions for electronic publishing and tick the box to acknowledge your acceptance. If you have chosen Only for archiving, you will not be asked to accept any publishing conditions.

17. Submit: When you have checked that all is correct, click on Submit. The box for approval of the publication condition will not appear if you have selected only archive.

After submitting your paper

When you have submitted your paper it has to be approved by an administrator at your department and/or equivalent before it can be published. For this reason, you will not be able to see your paper immediately in DiVA after you have registered it.

If you want to make changes later, contact the DiVA administrator at your department. For more information about who to contact see our student theses webpages.

Thank you for registering this item.

The record has now been saved in the system.

If you cannot immediately see your publication in DiVA the delay is because it has to be checked first by a librarian or an administrator.

If you have provided your e-mail address you will receive a confirmation when your registration is complete as well as when your paper has been published/archived.

When the administrator has published your paper, you will be able to find it in DiVA, Essays.se and search engines such as Google.
