Getting there by plane

The closest major international airports to fly to are Copenhagen/Kastrup (CPH) and Stockholm/Arlanda (ARN):

- Continue here if you arrive to Copenhagen/Kastrup (CPH)
- Continue here if you arrive to Stockholm/Arlanda (ARN)

For international visitors, we recommend the route via Copenhagen/Kastrup (CPH) which is the shortest in terms of travel time.

Copenhagen - Karlskrona

There are no flights between Copenhagen Airport and Karlskrona. A direct train between Copenhagen Airport and Karlskrona leaves every hour during daytime. Please note that there are limited departures on weekends. See schedule and book tickets beforehand on SJ's webpage.

Step 1: Book ticket for Copenhagen, Denmark from your country of travel. Please check well in advance if you need a visa for Sweden.

Step 2: In the arrival hall (at Copenhagen Airport), vending machines for the train tickets are located below the big clock just outside the arrival hall. Alternatively, you can buy train tickets at the service desk close by if you prefer personal service. The trip to Karlskrona takes about 3 hours without any train changes.

Step 3: After purchasing the ticket, proceed to the escalator or elevators that take you down to the correct track for trains towards Karlskrona.

Step 4: Arriving in Karlskrona, the train station (Karlskrona Central) is just north of the town center.

To think of:

- Buy train tickets before boarding the train. It is not possible to purchase tickets on the train. The conductor will fine you for travelling without ticket.
- Consider business/1st class during rush hours, as the train can get very full.
- There is no restaurant on the train so bring preferable supplies.
- Target the rear part of the train, the train might split along the way in Kristianstad. Information about splits will be displayed inside the train carriage. Please ask the conductor in case of doubts.
